

Campus Scavenger Hunt - Clemson University

On Campus Highlights:

 The Clemson Paw at Death Valley (Memorial Stadium): Find the famous paw logo at the entrance and take a picture with it. Bonus: Find Howard's Rock and learn its story!

 Tillman Hall: Take a photo of this historic building and learn about its significance as one of the oldest structures on campus.

 Cooper Library: Spot the library's outdoor amphitheater and find a quiet study spot inside that you'd love to spend time in.

 Clemson Botanical Garden: Explore the garden and snap a picture of your favorite plant, flower, or sculpture in the garden.

 Lake Hartwell: Head over to the lake and find a spot that feels relaxing. Take a photo of the lake and note what makes this spot peaceful to you.

 Watt Family Innovation Center: Discover some cool technology or exhibit on display. What's something you found

Local Interest Places Around Campus

 South Carolina Botanical Garden: Just outside the main campus, see if you can spot a native bird or cool piece of artwork as you walk through the gardens.

 Downtown Clemson: Explore College Avenue and visit a local restaurant or shop. What did you find? Grab a bite and tell us what's popular with the students!

 Lake Keowee: Just a short drive from campus, explore the stunning Lake Keowee and find out why Clemson students love it for weekend activities. Snap a photo by the water!

 Fort Hill Plantation: Discover the home of John C. Calhoun on the Clemson campus. What did you find out about its historical importance?

Other Interesting Spots

 The Esso Club: Famous among students and alumni alike, stop by this Clemson icon and find out what's on the menu or what game is playing.

 Clemson Outdoor Lab: Venture into the woods! Find a cool trail or spot for a quick hike. What's your favorite thing about nature in Clemson?

 Clemson Amtrak Station: It's a small but historic station—find it and learn what major cities you can travel to from here.

 Tiger Band Practice Field: Listen for the band practicing and find out when they rehearse. Bonus: Learn one of the Clemson fight songs!